

British food

Study the materials in your Prepare 8 Student's Book (p.62–63)

Test "Fact or Myth?"

Choose the correct answer.

- Why did tourists previously have a poor opinion of British food?
 - Britain did not have good quality products.
 - Tourists only ate in cheap, visitor-oriented restaurants.
 - British people did not cook at home.
- Which dish is traditionally considered a "Sunday" meal?
 - Fish and chips.
 - Roast dinner with gravy.
 - Ploughman's lunch.
- Which of these statements about local dishes is CORRECT according to the text?
 - Cullen skink is a sweet dessert from Scotland.
 - Welsh rarebit is a dish made of rabbit meat.
 - Bara brith is a sweet bread with fruit and spices.
- Which international dish has become so popular that it is often called Britain's "national dish"?
 - Pizza.
 - Curry.
 - Pasta.

Vocabulary Match (Highlighted words)

Match the words from the text with their correct definitions.

- | | |
|-----------------|---|
| 1. Takeaways | a) something difficult or demanding |
| 2. Perhaps | b) famous or unique dishes of a place |
| 3. Challenge | c) a place where you buy cooked food to eat elsewhere |
| 4. Specialities | d) maybe / possibly |

Menu categorization

Categorize the following dishes into the correct groups based on the text:

Full English breakfast cullen skink curry fish and chips Welsh rarebit
roast beef Bara brith Pizza.

Traditional favourites

Local specialities

International options

