Once I was seven years old, my mama told me

Go make yourself some friends or you'll be lonely

Once I was seven years old

It was a big big world, but we thought we were bigger

Pushing each other to the limits, we were learning quicker

By 11 smoking herb and drinking burning liquor

Never rich so we were out to make that steady figure

Once I was 11 years old, my daddy told me

Go get yourself a wife or you'll be lonely

Once I was 11 years old

I always had that dream like my daddy before me

So I started writing songs, I started writing stories

Something about the glory, just always seemed to bore me

'Cause only those I really love will ever really know me

Once I was 20 years old, my story got told

Before the morning sun, when life was lonely

Once I was 20 years old

(Lukas Graham)

I only see my goals, I don't believe in failure

'Cause I know the smallest voices, they can make it major

I got my boys with me at least those in favor
