

✓ Worksheet 1: Sentence Transformation

Instructions: Rewrite each sentence using the word/phrase in brackets.

✓ Do NOT change the meaning.

1. This island is an important place where many wild animals are protected.
→ This island is a _____.
2. Many small villages disappeared after the factory closed.
→ Many small villages seemed to _____ after the factory closed.
3. Bees are important because they help plants produce fruit and seeds.
→ A bee is an important _____ for many plants.
4. The old dog was loved by everyone in the neighbourhood.
→ The old dog was _____ by everyone in the neighbourhood.
5. The lizard changes colour so that predators cannot easily see it.
→ The lizard uses _____ so predators cannot easily see it.
6. Protecting endangered species is a key goal of environmental work.
→ Protecting endangered species is an important part of _____.
7. We went for a walk in a forest area with many trees and birds.
→ We went for a walk in a _____ area.
8. Scotland is famous for its lakes, especially in the Highlands.
→ Scotland is famous for its _____, especially in the Highlands.
9. The government is creating new protected areas for animals to live in.
→ The government is creating new protected _____ for animals.

✓ Worksheet 2: Cloze Test

Word Bank (Use each word ONCE)

valley – pollinator – habitat – wildlife stronghold – adored – camouflage – vanish – lochs – conservation – woodland – survivals

Fill in the blanks

In the north of Scotland, there are large areas of (1) _____ where many rare species can still be found. In fact, some regions are considered a (2) _____ because they provide safety for animals that have disappeared in other places. However, if these environments are damaged, many species may (3) _____ much faster than people expect.

One key example is the bee, a major (4) _____ that supports food production by helping plants reproduce. To survive, animals also depend on natural protection; for instance, some species use (5) _____ to hide from predators. Many local communities now support (6) _____ projects to protect biodiversity and reduce human impact.

The landscape is also famous for its (7) _____, which attract tourists and help local economies. Yet tourism must be managed carefully because it can disturb the natural (8) _____ of sensitive species. When people balance development with protection, both nature and humans can benefit.

“Many visitors are especially (9) _____ by iconic animals such as deer and eagles, which makes protecting them even more important.”