RULES AND ADVICE IN THE CITY: MUST AND SHOULD

Living in the city means following rules and giving advice to stay safe and respectful.

On the street, people _____ stop when the traffic light is red. Drivers _____ respect speed limits, especially near schools and hospitals.

In the library, visitors _____ be quiet so everyone can read and study. In parks, people _____ keep the area clean and throw trash in the bins.

When you go to the bank, you _____ wait in line and be patient. At the restaurant, you _____ try local food if you want to enjoy the city culture.

Students _____ arrive on time at school, and they _____ listen to the teacher in class. When it is raining, people _____ bring an umbrella to stay dry.

Following these rules and advice helps everyone live better in the city.
