

TELEVISION

Name:

Class:

Date:

- 1) Which definition explains the idiom 'couch potato'?
- A. A person who loves eating potatoes on the sofa.
 - B. A person who exercises every day and is very active.
 - C. A person who watches TV a lot and does not have an active life.
 - D. A person who prefers reading books to watching TV.
- 2) I prefer _____ documentaries to _____ soap operas because they are educational.
- A. watch / watch
 - B. watching / watching
 - C. watching / watch
 - D. to watch / to watch
- 3) My brother thinks horror movies are _____ for children because they include violence.
- A. amusing
 - B. harmful
 - C. funny
 - D. educational
- 4) You can use a _____ to change the channel without standing up.
- A. remote control
 - B. director
 - C. commercial
 - D. sitcom
- 5) Choose the correct option to complete the sentence. 'I prefer sitcoms _____ the news because I like laughing.'
- A. from
 - B. than
 - C. with
 - D. to
- 6) What is a 'documentary'?
- A. A program about the daily lives of a group of people.
 - B. A funny program with fictional characters.
 - C. A television program giving facts about animals, science, or history.
 - D. A short video to sell a product.
- 7) 'Did you watch the last _____ of the series last night?'
- A. episode
 - B. director
 - C. audience
 - D. channel

