Read the following passage and mark the letter A, B, C, or D on your answer sheet to indicate the correct answer to each of the following questions from 31 to 36.

Language is indispensable to humans. It helps us share our thoughts, express our emotions, and understand one another. Without language, we wouldn't be able to build relationships or learn from others. Over time, languages have gradually developed, changing in sounds, grammar, and vocabulary. That's why the way people speak today is often very different from how their grandparents spoke.

Around the world, there are thousands of languages. Some are spoken by millions of people, while others are used by only a small group. Sadly, many of these smaller languages are disappearing. When a language dies, we also lose part of a culture and history. That's why many specialists are working hard to protect endangered languages before they are lost forever.

Not all languages are spoken with voices. Sign languages use hand movements and facial expressions to share meaning. They are used by people who are deaf or hard of hearing and are just as rich and meaningful as spoken ones.

Learning another language can also help you personally. It can boost your self-confidence, strengthen your brain and help you understand different cultures. In today's global world, speaking more than one language can help you open doors in both life and work.

Question 31. According to the passage, the word boost is CLOSEST in meaning to _____.

A. worsen B. lessen C. reduce D. improve

Question 32. What is the main idea of the passage?

A. Sign languages are more useful than spoken languages.

B. Only major languages help people in daily situations.

C. Language connects people and changes across history.

D. Language is used only for speaking with other people.

Question 33. According to the passage, the word indispensable is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.

A. uncommon B. unimportant C. unavailable D. unusual

Question 34. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?
