Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement

Directions: In each sentence, choose the correct pronoun (or pair of pronouns) that agrees with its antecedent.

1. Barry, Ellen, and Julie have had (her/their) portfolios accepted for the show.

2. Each Saturday, either Josh or Ted skates by on (their/his) in – line skates.

3. Both Larry and Elaine like (her/their) new neighborhood and (them/their) new house.

4. When Tommy and Byron arrive, tell (them/they) we are in the cafeteria.

5. Neither Julie nor her sisters want to give up (their/her) place.

6. They tried to study, but there was too much noise around (her/them).

7. Robin dries (their/her) hair in the sun, even though (them/she) could use a hair dryer.

8. Carl took the higher path where (they/he) could see the deer.

9. The swimming power of a shark comes from (them/its) tail.

10. They swam to the far shore, where (they/he) could find shells.

LIVEWORKSHEETS