

1 Watch, then match.

I don't have time to read. ●

I recommend this book for you. ●

You can learn lots of new ideas from reading. ●

2 Watch again and answer.

1 Who always has a book on the go?	Amy	Jason	Lisa
2 Who wants to play a video game?	Amy	Jason	Lisa
3 What does the girl who can't hear play?	The flute	The drums	The guitar
4 Does Jason have lots of books?	Yes	No
5 Who has got lots of books?	Amy	Jason	Lisa
6 Is the book Lisa recommends about a girl or a boy?		A girl	A boy

4 Read, match and say.

Where do you like reading? ●

Do you share books with friends? ●

What genres do you like? ●

Do you read books in other languages? ●

Do you make time for reading in your day? ●

● Yes, sometimes. If I like a book, I want my friends to read it too. Then we can talk about it.

● In bed! On Sunday morning, I stay in bed and read till it's time for breakfast.

● I'm definitely a science fiction fan, but I quite like fantasy and detective stories too.

● Sometimes I read books in French. I always choose books with lots of pictures. They help me understand the words.

● Not usually, but it's a good idea. After school, I have a snack in the kitchen. This is a good time for reading.

2 Listen and choose.

- 1 Serena's favourite genre is .
- 2 Max shares books with his .
- 3 The library is near the .
- 4 Serena's favourite place to read is .
- 5 Max is reading a book in .
- 6 Max's favourite time to read is .