

Life Experiences – Present Perfect

We use the present perfect to talk about life experiences. Things we have done at some time in our life. We don't say when it happened.

Form: Subject + have / has + past participle

Examples:

- I have traveled to another city.
- She has eaten sushi.
- They have seen snow.
- He has swum in the ocean.

Have fallen in love	Have climbed a mountain	Have had a strange pet	Have ridden a horse

Have eaten sushi	Have gone camping	Have flown a kite	Have seen a lion

Have broken an arm	Have had an accident	Have travel abroad	Have found money

Have ridden on train	Have failed an exam	Have cheated on a quiz	Have gone fishing

Life experiences:

- have traveled to another city
- have eaten sushi
- have seen the ocean
- have swum in the sea
- have been on a safari
- have been in a zoo
- have ridden a horse
- have flown on a plane
- have visited a museum
- have bought something expensive
- have stayed in a hotel
- have seen snow
- have cooked a new dish
- have watched a live concert
- have met a famous person
- have won a prize
- have taken lots of photos
- have learned a new skill
- have helped a stranger
- have tried foreign food

Exercises

Exercise 1: Choose the correct option

1. I ___ traveled by plane. (has / have)
2. She ___ eaten pizza. (have / has)
3. They ___ seen a dolphin. (have / has)
4. He ___ swum in the ocean. (have / has)

Exercise 2: Complete the sentence with have or has

1. I _____ eaten sushi.
2. She _____ traveled to another city.
3. We _____ seen a rainbow.
4. He _____ swum in the ocean.

Exercise 3: Write Yes, I have or No, I haven't

1. Have you eaten pizza? _____
2. Have you traveled by plane? _____
3. Have you seen the ocean? _____

Exercise 4: Write about your life experiences and the ones you haven't lived yet
