

I. READING

Peter and Alice Batson live in Lincoln in the north-east of England. They are both thirty-seven. They have two children - a daughter and a son. Rick is thirteen years old and Sarah is eleven. Peter is a teacher at Rick and Sarah's school and Alice is a shop assistant. The Batsons live in a terraced house. There are four bedrooms, a kitchen, a living room, a study, two bathrooms and a toilet in their house. They also have a small garden and a balcony. They can see a famous cathedral from it.

Rick and Sarah start school at nine o'clock and finish at quarter past four. They usually walk to school, but they come back home by car with their father. When they are at home, they do their homework and then the family have dinner at seven o'clock. After dinner Sarah usually watches cartoons on TV or reads a book, and Rick plays computer games or plays the guitar.

On Saturdays Rick plays football with his friends and they ride a bike in the park. Sarah usually helps her mother cook dinner and tidy her room. On Sundays, the Batsons usually go to the country to visit Rick and Sarah's grandparents. They are farmers. The children love being on the farm. Rick and Sarah can feed sheep, ponies, geese and goats there.
