

English for children

Exercise 1: Reading

A Busy Week at Green Valley School

At Green Valley School, there are (many / much) students in the morning. They bring (a few / a little) books and notebooks to class. There is (some / many) noise in the hallway before the bell rings. Teachers try to keep order with (a little / a few) patience.

In the cafeteria, there is (much / many) food for everyone. Students drink (some / many) milk and eat (a few / a little) apples. There isn't (many / much) sugar in the juice. They only have (a little / a few) time to eat.

The library has (many / much) books about science and history. There is (some / many) information on the computers. Students need (a few / a little) minutes to find a book. There isn't (much / many) noise inside the library.

In the classroom, the teacher gives (some / many) instructions. Students ask (much / many) questions about the lesson. There is (a little / a few) confusion at first. Soon, they understand with (a little / a few) practice.

During art class, students use (much / many) paper and colors. There is (some / many) paint on the tables. They don't need (many / much) water for the activity. Each student makes (a few / a little) drawings.

At recess, there are (many / much) children in the playground. They have (a lot of / much) fun with their friends. There is (some / many) equipment like balls and ropes. There isn't (much / many) space near the swings.

In the science lab, students use (a few / a little) tools. There is (some / many) equipment on the tables.

They don't have (much / many) experience yet. The teacher gives (a little / a few) help.

After school, there is (much / many) homework to do. Students need (a little / a few) time to rest first. There isn't (much / many) help at home sometimes. Still, they make (some / many) effort.

On Friday, there are (many / much) activities at school. There is (some / many) music in the auditorium. Students bring (a few / a little) snacks to share. There isn't (much / many) stress that day.

Find us on
Facebook

English for children

At the end of the week, students have (much / many) energy. They learned (a lot of / many) new things. There is (some / many) satisfaction in their work. They need (a little / a few) rest for the weekend.

Exercise 2: Reading Comprehension

Choose the correct answer (A, B or C).

Where are the students before the bell rings?

- A) In the cafeteria B) In the hallway C) In the library

What do students drink in the cafeteria?

- A) Water B) Juice only C) Milk

Why is the library quiet?

- A) Because there are many teachers B) Because there isn't much noise
C) Because there are few books

What do students ask in the classroom?

- A) Many questions B) Much homework C) Much noise

What do students use in art class?

- A) Much water B) Many papers and colors C) Few books

Where do students play during recess?

- A) In the classroom B) In the playground C) In the library

What do students lack in the science lab?

- A) Much equipment B) Many tools C) Much experience

When do students have homework?

- A) During recess B) After school C) On Friday morning

What do students bring on Friday?

- A) A little music B) A few snacks C) Much homework

How do students feel at the end of the week?

- A) With much stress B) With no energy C) With satisfaction

Find us on
Facebook

English for children

EXERCISE 3 – Choose the correct quantifier

Choose the correct quantifier to complete each sentence.

1. There is ___ milk in the fridge.
 - a) many b) much
2. She has ___ friends at school.
 - a) much b) many
3. We don't have ___ time to finish the exam.
 - a) much b) many
4. There are ___ apples on the table.
 - a) much b) many
5. He drinks ___ water every day.
 - a) many b) much
6. I have ___ homework today.
 - a) many b) much
7. There are ___ students in the classroom.
 - a) much b) many
8. She doesn't eat ___ sugar.
 - a) many b) much
9. We saw ___ cars on the highway.
 - a) many b) much
10. There isn't ___ coffee left.
 - a) many b) much

EXERCISE 4 – Countable or Uncountable

Write C (countable) or U (uncountable) as corresponds.

1. bread ___
2. chair ___
3. money ___
4. book ___
5. water ___
6. student ___
7. rice ___
8. apple ___
9. information ___
10. egg ___

Find us on
Facebook

EXERCISE 5: Listen and fill in the blanks.

Funny News Report: The Great Teddy Bear Heist

Last night, a very strange robbery happened at the famous Happy Fluff teddy bear shop. were many colorful teddy bears, but suddenly of them disappeared. The store had stuffed animals and candy machines near the door. According to the owner, was little noise and no broken glass at all. It was clearly not a dangerous crime, but it was definitely a funny one.

The thief did not take money, but grabbed giant teddy bears instead. Police officers found cotton on the floor and a chocolate on a shelf. There were small bears left, but big ones were missing. The shop still had toys and happiness inside. Everyone agreed this was the cutest robbery in town history.

Witnesses said the suspect carried too teddy bears to run fast. was a little confusion and laughter from people outside the store. One teenager said there was fluff to fill backpacks. The police reported no violence and no serious problems during the incident. It was more like a comedy show than a real crime.

In the end, all the stolen teddy bears were returned with bite marks on them. The shop owner said there is security now and less risk for the bears. There is still love, toys, and fun for everyone. The police learned that crimes are serious, but are just silly. Teenagers online say this story has a little crime and laughs.

