

Part 1: Match the Words with the Definitions.

Take something and return it later.

Give something for a short time, expect it back later.

Allow someone to do something.

A long journey, especially by sea or space.

To allow someone to do something

The act of traveling from one place to another, often long or important.

- Take something and return it later.
- Give something for a short time, expect it back later.
- Allow someone to do something.
- A long journey, especially by sea or space.
- To allow someone to do something.
- The act of traveling from one place to another, often long or important.

Part 2: Complete the Sentences.

Words: borrow — lend — let — journey — trip — voyage

1. To give something to someone for a short time and expect it back. _____
2. A short journey, often for pleasure, work, or school. _____
3. To take something from someone with permission and return it later. _____
4. A long journey, especially by sea or space. _____
5. To allow someone to do something. _____
6. The act of traveling from one place to another, often long or important. _____

Part 2: Complete the Sentences. (Repeated Header)

Words: borrow — lend — let — journey — trip — voyage

1. Can I _____ your pen for a moment?
2. My parents _____ me stay up late on.
3. We went on a school _____ to the museum.
4. The sailor prepared for a long _____ across the ocean.
5. She _____ me her book for two days.
6. Their _____ from the village to the city took many hours.

Part 4: Choose the Correct Word

1. I didn't have money, so my friend borrowed / lend / lent me some.
2. The astronaut's trip / voyage into space lasted six months.
3. May I let / borrow your phone for a call?
4. The train journey / trip was long but comfortable.

Vocabulary Worksheet

Borrow – Lend – Let – Journey – Trip – Voyage

Name: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

Date: _____

Part 1: Match the Words with the Definitions.

Words: borrow – lend – let – journey – trip – voyage

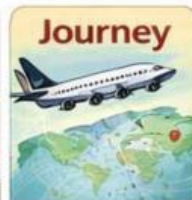

Borrow
Take something and return it later.

Lend
Give something for a short time, expect it back later.

Let
Allow someone to do something.

Journey
A long journey, especially by sea or space.

Trip
To allow someone to do something

Voyage
The act of traveling from one place to another, often long or important.

Part 2: Complete the Sentences.

borrow – lend – let – journey – trip – voyage

- To give something to someone for a short time and expect it back. _____
- A short journey, often for pleasure, work, or school. _____
- To take something from someone with permission and return it later. _____
- A long journey, especially by sea or space. _____
- To allow someone to do something. _____
- The act of traveling from one place to another, often long or important. _____

Part 2: Complete the Sentences.

borrow – lend – let – journey – trip – voyage

- Can I _____ your pen for a moment?
- My parents _____ me stay up late on _____
- We went on a school _____ to the museum.
- The sailor prepared for a long _____ across _____ the ocean.
- She _____ me her book for two days.
- Their _____ from the village to the city took many hours.
- I didn't have money, so my friend _____ some _____ months.
- The astronaut's trip / voyage _____
- May I let / borrow your phone for a call?
- The train journey / trip was long but comfortable.

Part 4: Choose the Correct Word

- I didn't have money, so my friend borrowed / lend / lent me some.
- The astronaut's trip / voyage into space lasted six months. _____
- May I let / borrow your phone for a call? _____
- The train journey / trip was long but comfortable. _____