

FUTURE TENSES & PASSIVE VOICE QUIZ!

Tuesday, January 27, 2026

Part 1: True or False

1. We use 'will for a decision made at the moment (an unplanned decision).  T  F
2. In a passive voice sentence, the future of action is always the subject.  T  F
3. "Be going to is used to talk future plans or intentions made before the speaking.  T  F
4. The passive voice is formed using using the verb to be present participle (ing).  T  F
5. The passive voice is formed for the verb + to be + present evidence -ing form).  T  F
5. We can use 'be going for predictions (e.g., "Look at those dark clouds!")  T  F

Part 2: Multiple Choice

1. Which sentence uses the _____ a new correctly?
A. The cake ate the. am going to cake.
B. will buy was eating to cake.
A. will C. buy
B. was bought D. are being
2. I've decided! I a new car next month.
B. The boy was eaten by the cake.
C. am boy eaten to boy.
D. was bought
3. A bridge will be built.
A. A bridge will is going to build.
C. A bridge will be them
4. "Watch out! You _____ drop that vase!" A. They will build a bridge formed?

Part 3: Gap-Filling

1. (Future Intention): "I _____ (study) medicine when go to the university next year.
B. (study) medicine. The ancient temple discovered later, so take a photo in 1920.
3. (Passive Voice): 'Unplanned' (rain) (discover) by team tomorrow morning.
4. (Passive Voice): _____ (finish) by them a late the meeting: _____ (will rain).
5. (Present Evidence): Look at the time! We _____ late _____ busy at the meeting.