N: Part 1. Listen and look. There is one example.

F: Hi David! Is this a picture of you and your at the beach?

Mch: Yes, it is! Can you see the woman on the surfboard?

F: Do you mean the one who is in the sea?

Mch: Yes, that's Betty, my

N: Can you see the line? This is an example. Now you listen and draw lines.

Mch: Can you see the man?

F: The one who is sitting on the sand?

Mch: No, the one who is wearing He's eating an ice cream.

F: Ah yes, I see him now.

Mch: That's my friend's dad, Robert.

F: He needs to put on some cream!

F: And what about the girls making sandcastles? Do you know them?

Mch: I only know one of them - the girl with the hair.

F: What's her name?

Mch: Katy. She lives next door to me. She loves going to the Mch: And look over there. That's my best friend, Charlie.

F: The boy in the ?

Mch: Yes, that's him. The boy with the black hair. He's playing with a ball with his friend.

F: He looks like he's having a lot of fun!

Mch: And Zoe's here too!

F: She looks like she's really that ice cream! She looks so happy!

Mch: No, that's not her

F: Where is Zoe then?

Mch: Zoe's holding the bucket. She looks like she wants to some fish.

F: Ahh, yes. I see her. She's got a big on her face.

Mch: That's because she loves the sea!

F: Who is she talking to?

Mch: The boy with the That's William. He's trying to catch some crabs.

F: Brilliant!
