

going to and Present Continuous go/come - to be going to

I'm going to go shopping.
I'm going shopping.

Ex.1. Gabby is going on holiday. Look at the chart. Make questions and answers about holiday plans using going to.

- Where's she going?
She's going to the Greek islands.
- How?
She
- Where's?
She
- How long?
She
- What?
She

Ex.2. Claire and Bill are going to Zagreb next month. Look at the chart in 4 and complete the conversation. Use going to or the Present Continuous.

A Hi guys! Where are you going on holiday this year?

B We're going to Zagreb, the capital of Croatia.

A Wow! Sounds interesting!

How to travel there?

B By plane. There are lots of really cheap flights.

A Where to stay?

B We're at the Jadran Hotel. It's only ten minutes from Zagreb Cathedral.

A That's nice. How long for?

C For a week.

A And what to do when you're there?

B Bill to visit all the museums and churches and I the local beer!

C We both to a big music festival. There are lots of good bands playing.

Listen and compare.

Complete the negative sentences.

- Claire and Bill aren't going to Romania. They're going to Croatia.
- They by train. They're going by plane.
- They with a family. They're going to stay in a hotel.
- Gabby to Spain. She's going to Greece.
- She by train. She's going by plane and ferry.
- She visit old churches. She's going to relax.

	Gabby	Claire and Bill
1 Where/go	Greek islands	Zagreb, Croatia
2 How/travel	plane and ferry	plane
3 Where/stay	in a tent	Jadran Hotel
4 How long/stay	two weeks	one week
5 What/do	relax, swim, and read	visit St Mark's Church, go to a music festival

