TRS601 – Sociology 2 – Part 2

1. Over the past decades, rapid technological _____ has transformed how data is collected, analyzed, and shared in academic research.
a. advancement
b. plight
c. boycott
d. allegiance

2. Due to decades of influential publications and policy advising, she is considered a _____ authority in the field of international law.
a. militant
b. radical
c. preeminent
d. palatable

3. Most modern universities are legally required to implement _____ regulations to ensure equal opportunities for students and staff.
a. alienate
b. antidiscrimination
c. segregationist
d. inhumane

4. Inadequate sampling methods can be extremely _____ to the reliability and credibility of academic findings.
a. palatable
b. charismatic
c. uneventfully
d. detrimental

5. The historian strongly condemns _____ doctrines that were historically used to justify racial separation in public institutions.
a. segregationist
b. prescience
c. nonviolent resistance
d. preeminent

6. Persistent economic and educational _____ continue to shape life chances across different social classes.
a. levy
b. boycott
c. inequalities
d. allegiance

7. In political theory, _____ is often discussed as a legitimate response to laws that violate basic moral principles.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

a. advancement
b. civil disobedience
c. plight
d. prescience

8. Activists encouraged consumers to organize a coordinated _____ in order to pressure corporations to improve labor standards.
a. adhere to
b. levy
c. succumb
d. boycott

9. International organizations published reports condemning the _____ conditions in refugee detention centers.
a. inhumane
b. palatable
c. charismatic
d. uneventfully

10. Many scholars argue that knowingly exploiting vulnerable populations for profit is ethically _____.
a. prescient
b. radical
c. unconscionable
d. preeminent

11. The movement gained global attention because it relied on _____ rather than armed conflict to achieve political change.
a. militant
b. nonviolent resistance
c. allegiance
d. emulate

12. Without structural reforms, public institutions may eventually _____ to political pressure from powerful interest groups.
a. adhere to
b. galvanize
c. levy
d. succumb

13. Sociological studies frequently document the _____ faced by marginalized communities with limited access to education and healthcare.
a. plight
b. prescience
c. advancement
d. allegiance

LIVEWORKSHEETS

14. Critics warn that certain educational policies may unintentionally _____ students from minority linguistic backgrounds.
a. anticipate
b. deem
c. marginalize
d. emulate

15. Academics who openly challenge dominant paradigms may be _____ by peers within their own discipline.
a. galvanize
b. ostracize
c. adhere to
d. levy

16. His _____ personality enabled him to inspire trust and motivate large groups of young activists.
a. militant
b. palatable
c. unwavering
d. charismatic

17. Researchers conducting experiments on human subjects are expected to strictly _____ established ethical standards.
a. adhere to
b. alienate
c. emulate
d. deem

18. Developing countries often attempt to _____ successful industrial strategies used by more advanced economies.
a. boycott
b. succumb
c. emulate
d. ostracize

19. After repeated failures in negotiation, the organization shifted toward a more _____ strategy to achieve its goals.
a. palatable
b. militant
c. uneventfully
d. prescient

20. Policymakers modified the proposal to make it more _____ to voters who were initially opposed to the reform.
a. radical
b. segregationist

LIVEWORKSHEETS

c. unwavering
d. palatable

21. Excessive bureaucracy and unclear regulations may _____ international investors seeking stable markets.
a. alienate
b. galvanize
c. anticipate
d. emulate

22. The powerful speech succeeded in _____ public support for comprehensive educational reform.
a. levy
b. succumb
c. galvanize
d. deem

23. Effective leaders must _____ potential economic and social consequences before implementing major policies.
a. adhere to
b. anticipate
c. ostracize
d. boycott

24. His remarkable _____ allowed him to foresee political shifts long before they became widely recognized.
a. advancement
b. allegiance
c. plight
d. prescience

25. After extensive review, the ethics committee will _____ the research proposal unacceptable.
a. deem
b. emulate
c. anticipate
d. levy

26. During periods of conflict, citizens may develop a strong emotional _____ to national symbols and institutions.
a. boycott
b. radical
c. allegiance
d. prescience

LIVEWORKSHEETS

27. To finance large-scale infrastructure projects, governments may _____ additional taxes on high-income earners.
a. adhere to
b. levy
c. galvanize
d. alienate

28. Despite initial concerns, the experiment proceeded _____, producing results consistent with expectations.
a. unwavering
b. militant
c. prescient
d. uneventfully

29. Even under intense public criticism, she remained _____ in her commitment to academic independence.
a. unwavering
b. palatable
c. radical
d. inhumane

30. The article calls for a _____ transformation of traditional theories that no longer reflect global realities.
a. preeminent
b. charismatic
c. radical
d. uneventfully

LIVEWORKSHEETS