

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Complete the colonial class structure. (2,5p.)

2. Match the roles and the influence of the catholic Church in colonial Latin America. (2,5p.)

Justification for conquest

Missionaries educated indigenous people in Spanish customs and language.

Social and political power

The Church, alongside the state, controlled society, influencing laws, and thought through institutions like the Inquisition.

Economic powerhouse

The Church enforced religious and cultural homogeneity, using its power to monitor thought and ensure loyalty to both the Church and Crown.

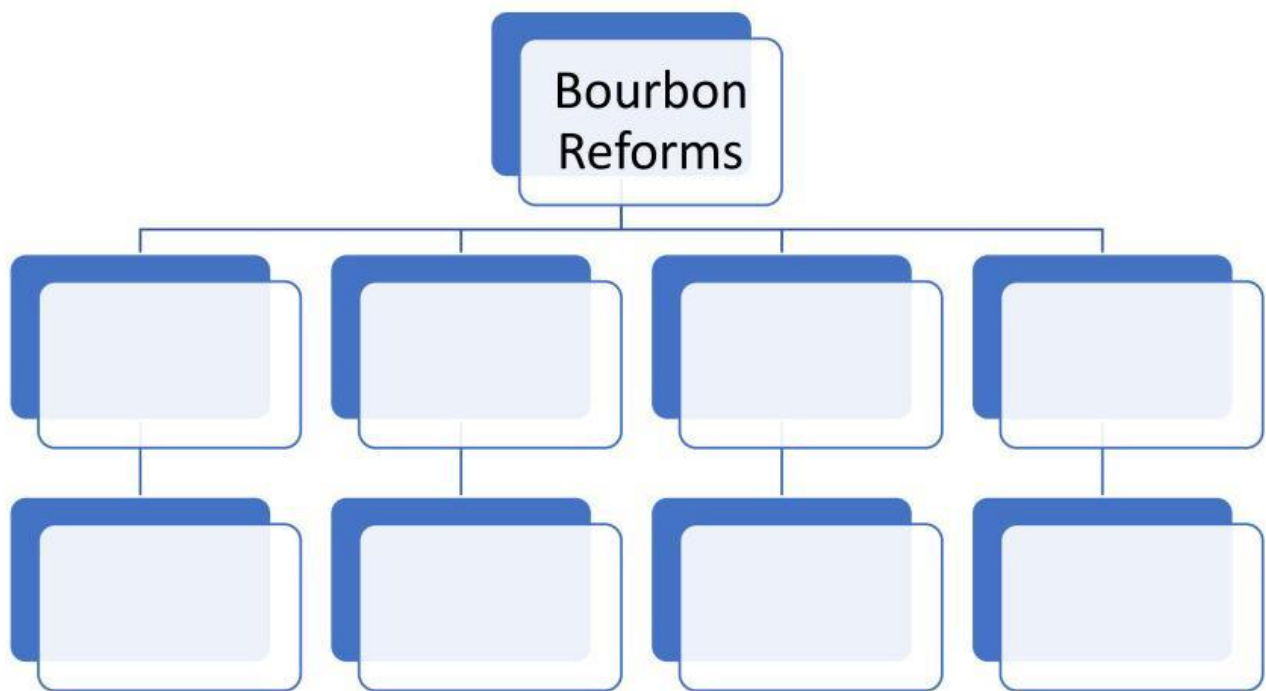

Cultural transformation

Religion was a primary justification for colonization, with the mission to convert indigenous peoples to Catholicism.

Control and conformity

Missions became wealthy enterprises, involved in agriculture and large-scale land ownership, with the Church becoming a major economic entity.

3. Complete the graphic organizer. (2p.)

4. Label the map with the names of the viceroyalties. (1p.)

5. Answer the questions. (2p.)

- What were some of the causes for the insurrection of the indigenous peoples?

- What do you think about the indigenous revolts?
