

STUDENT WORKSHEET (LKPD)

Subject: English

Grade: XI (Eleventh Grade)

Topic: Non-Fiction Narrative Text (Inspiring Figures)

Learning Objectives

1. Students can identify and research an inspiring Indonesian activist.
2. Students can compose a non-fiction narrative text following the correct generic structure.
3. Students can analyze the language features used in the narrative text.
4. Students can formulate 5W+1H questions based on their own writing.

Part 1: Research & Writing

Instruction: Search for information about one inspiring Indonesian activist (e.g., Butet Manurung, Marsinah, Wiji Thukul, or a local environmental/social hero). Write a short biography of them in the form of a Narrative Text. Ensure you follow the structure: Orientation, Complication, and Resolution.

Title: _____

Structure	Narrative Paragraph
Orientation
Complication
Resolution
Re-Orientation/Coda

Part 2: Language Features Analysis

Instruction: Analyze the language features found in the text you have written. Fill in the table below with examples from your text.

Language Feature	Examples from the Text
Simple Past Tense
Action Verbs
Time Connectives
Adjectives
Specific Noun

Part 3: Critical Thinking (5W + 1H)

Instruction: Based on the text you wrote in Part 1, create six questions using the 5W + 1H formula and provide the answers.

1. Who: _____ ?

Answer: _____

2. What: _____ ?

Answer: _____

3. Where: _____ ?

Answer: _____

4. When: _____?

Answer: _____

5. Why: _____?

Answer: _____

6. How: _____?

Answer: _____