

DIFFERENT USES OF “GET”

GET = ARRIVE

It is used with places to say that we have arrived

Example:

- I got to school at 8 a.m.
- She got late to the party.

GET = BECOME

It is used to talk about changes in state or emotions.

Example:

- I got really thirsty.
- He got angry when he saw the mess.

GET = BRING

It is used when someone brings something to another person.

Example:

- She got me some water.
- Can you get me the book, please?

DIFFERENT USES OF “GET”

GET = UNDERSTAND

→ It is used when we talk about understanding something.

Example:

- I didn't get what they said.
- Do you get the joke?

GET = MOVE INTO A POSITION OR PLACE

→ It is used to indicate physical actions of moving or placing somewhere.

Example:

- We got up from the table.
- Get on the bus!

GET = RECEIVE

→ It is used when we receive something.

Example:

- I got a message from my friend.
- She got a present for her birthday.

GET = OBTAIN OR BUY

→ It is used when we obtain or we buy something.

Example:

- I got him a really good camera.
- We got some food from the supermarket.