QUANTIFIERS

Quantifiers tell us how much or how many of something there is.

🔷 A LOT OF / LOTS OF 🧺🧺🧺🧺

We use it to talk about a BIG quantity.

Example ➡️

I have a lot of friends.

There is lots of time to play.

🔷 SOME 🍎🍎

We use it to talk about a SMALL quantity in AFFIRMATIVE sentences.

Example ➡️

There are some apples in the basket

I have some homework to do

🔷 ANY 🚫🚫

We use it to talk about ZERO quantity in NEGATIVE sentences and QUESTIONS.

Example ➡️

I don't have any money.

Have you got any brothers?

🔷 NOT MUCH / MANY

We use it to talk about a SMALL number or quantity.

- MUCH → UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS 🕒 💧
- MANY → COUNTABLE NOUNS 🍋🍋🍋

Example ➡️

There aren't many lemons.

I don't have much time.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

QUANTIFIERS

🔷 TOO MUCH / MANY

We use it when there is more than necessary.

- MUCH → UNCOUNTABLE NOUNS 🕒 💧
- MANY → COUNTABLE NOUNS 🍋🍋🍋

Example ➡️

She drank too much water.

There are too many books on the table.

🔷 ENOUGH ✅

We use it to talk about having the right amount or number of something.

Example ➡️

There is enough time to play.

The soup is enough for two people.

🔷 NOT ENOUGH ❌

We use it when there is less than we want of something.

Example ➡️

There are not enough apples for everyone.

There is not enough bread for breakfast.

LIVEWORKSHEETS