

1 Rewrite the sentences using the words in brackets. Do not change the original meaning.

1. I think you should get help for this problem. (if)
2. When her English improves, she will be able to find a job. (until)
3. Joanne will arrive soon, and then we can go out to eat. (as soon as)
4. Alan doesn't go out with us because he has to save money. (didn't)
5. They left the demonstration when it became violent. (would)
6. The protesters covered their faces, so the police weren't able to identify them. (have)

2 Complete the sentences with 1-2 words.

- 1 she knows how to code, she won't get the job.
- 2 He support the cause unless he cared about it.
- 3 If there were more programmes for young people, the level of juvenile delinquency drop.
4. We would have walked if it rained.
- 5 If crime a major problem, tourism would improve here.
- 6 I be able to stay out late tonight unless my parents give me a curfew.
- 7 The refugee wouldn't have left his country the living conditions there had been better.