

1. Read the questions and correct the mistakes by using indirect questions.

Ex: What time does the movie start?

→ Could you tell me what time the movie starts?

1. Could you tell me where is the museum?

2. Do you know how much are the tickets for the music festival?

3. Do you know when the gallery be open?

4. Can you say me when the cruise starts?

2. Read the situations and write indirect questions. Use Do? Or Could ...?

Ex: You want to know where the nearest bank is.

→ Could you tell me where the nearest bank is?

1. You don't know who made this sculpture.

who / make / this sculpture?

2. You're looking for Buckingham Palace.

where / Buckingham Palace / be?

3. You haven't got your watch and need to know the time.

what time / it / be?

4. There's a music festival, but you don't know when it is.

when / the music festival / be?

3. Read the text and choose the right variants of Passive Voice.

ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL

St. Paul's Cathedral is said / was said to be one of the finest pieces of architecture in Europe.

It is designed / was designed by Christopher Wren, who is known / was known as "the architect of London". St. Paul's Cathedral is the third cathedral with this name. The two others are burnt / were burnt down, the first in 1086 and the second in 1666. St. Paul's was built / is built on the highest point in the city. Its building lasted for 35 years, and Wren was an old man before it is finished / was finished.

Its dome with a golden ball and cross on the top is the symbol of London. It is made / was made of two domes, Outer and Inner, one inside the other. Inside there is the balcony which is called / was called the Whispering Gallery. A whisper which was directed / is directed along the wall of one side of the dome is heard / was heard on the other side. In order to get to the Whispering Gallery, you have to climb 263 steps. The inner dome of the Cathedral is decorated / was decorated with scenes from the life of Saint Paul.

One of the most important monuments in the interior of the Cathedral was dedicated / is dedicated to the Duke of Wellington. There are two famous bells in the Cathedral which were named / are named Great Tom and Great Paul. The latter is the largest bell ever cast in Britain, which weighs 16.5 tons and hasn't rung for many years. Great Tom is sounded / was sounded for a royal death.

Many great men were buried / are buried in the crypt of the Cathedral, including Christopher Wren himself, Admiral Nelson, Sir Alexander Fleming, Sir Joshua Reynolds, and others. On the tomb of Christopher Wren an epitaph was written / was written: "If you seek his monument, look around you."

4. Imagine you are telling a friend about a trip to a city you have visited. It is a trip you will never forget, and you would like to visit that city again. In your writing, you should write about:

- where the city is
- when you went there and who you went with
- how long you stayed
- what you did and saw in the city
- your favourite place or activity during the trip
- how you felt during the trip
- why you cannot forget this trip and want to go back again

Write 250 words or more.

