HOW MANY/MUCH

by Julian Conde

I. Write "a lot, some, a few, a little, any."

1. Q: How many apples are in the fridge?

A: There are _____ (3 or 4).

2. Q: How much traffic is there today?

A: There is _____ (the streets are very full!).

3. Q: How many parks are in this city?

A: There aren't _____ (maybe only one or two).

4. Q: How much milk is left?

A: There isn't _____. The bottle is empty.

5. Q: How much salt do you need?

A: Just _____, please. I don't like salty food.

II. Write "how much" or "how many".

- _____ water do you drink every day?

- _____ books are in your bag?

- _____ money do you have?

- _____ students are in the classroom?

- _____ sugar do you want in your coffee?

II. Listen and write.

- _____ buildings are in the city? There are _____.
- _____ noise is there? There isn't _____.
