

Literature and Lifestyle

1. Match the words with their definition

- | | |
|------------------|---|
| 1. Graphic novel | • A. A large event where publishers and authors display and sell books. |
| 2. Book fair | • B. A story about illegal activities and trying to find the person who did them. |
| 3. Non-fiction | • C. A book that tells a story using a series of illustrations (like a long comic). |
| 4. Workshop | • D. Books about real facts, events, and people (not imagined). |
| 5. Crime | • E. A meeting where people discuss a subject or do a practical activity. |

2. Fill in the gaps

1. I love reading about space and aliens, so _____ is my favorite genre.
2. My grandmother gave me a great _____ because she knows I love trying new recipes.
3. Every Sunday morning, my dad makes delicious _____ with maple syrup for breakfast.
4. The _____ of this novel won a prestigious award last year.
5. If you want to know everything about Steve Jobs' life, you should read his _____.
6. I often buy _____ magazines to find ideas for my next summer vacation.

3. Odd One Out

1. Classic / Novel / Pancakes / Comic book
2. Book fair / Book presentation / Workshop / History book
3. Fiction / Non-fiction / Science fiction / Present
4. Crime / Travel / Graphic novel / Biography

4. Choose the best option

1. We went to a (book fair / cookbook) to buy some rare editions.
2. She received a beautiful book as a (present / workshop) for her birthday.
3. Sherlock Holmes is a world-famous (classic / pancakes) of detective literature.
4. He is writing a (history book / fiction) about the events of the Second World War.
5. We attended a (book presentation / comic book) where the author signed our copies.