Reading

6 Read the article about a robot. Are the sentences true (T) or false (F)?

Here is Gizmo, the fantastic new robot for children. It's from a modern science laboratory in Beijing in China. Gizmo isn't big, but it can do many things. It can play music, take photos and videos. It has a big memory. You can have ten hours of video. It can speak and understand English, Japanese, Spanish and Russian. This great robot can learn new things and it can help children learn, too. It can't ride a bike or drive a car, but it can play football. It has a special TV app: you can watch TV on Gizmo's small screen.

Here is an example (0). 0 Gizmo is the name of a child _F_

1 The robot is small. _____
2 Gizmo's memory is big. _____
3 The robot can speak Chinese. _____
4 You can play football with Gizmo. _____
