

THE HEART AND EMOTIONS

VALENTINE'S DAY LISTENING

You will hear a talk about why we associate the heart with emotions. Read the questions and choose the best answer.

1. Why did people in the past believe emotions came from the heart?

- A Because the heart is bigger than the brain
- B Because they noticed changes in the heartbeat when people felt emotions
- C Because the brain was considered unimportant

2. What does the speaker say about language?

- A Many languages connect the heart with emotions
- B Heart expressions are difficult to understand
- C Only English uses the heart to talk about feelings

3. Why did the heart become a popular symbol?

- A It is medically correct
- B It is easy to recognize and use in symbols
- C It was invented for Valentine's Day

4. What does the speaker say about emotions today?

- A Scientists still believe they come from the heart
- B People no longer use heart symbols
- C The brain controls emotions, but the heart is still used as a symbol

5. What is the speaker's main purpose?

- A To explain why the heart is used as a symbol of emotion
- B To describe how Valentine's Day started
- C To compare the heart and the brain.

