An unusual journey

I flew to Barcelona last weekend to spend some time with my cousins. Although I <sup>1</sup>set off / landed / checked in from home very early, there were a lot of cars on the road and so I arrived at the airport quite late. Then, when I was trying to <sup>2</sup>take off / board / check in, I couldn't find my ticket! I finally found it at the bottom of my bag. Fortunately, it was very quick to get through <sup>3</sup>abroad / security / the queue. Finally, I got on the plane and sat down next to a young man. He looked very worried. 'I've never been on a plane before,' he explained. 'In fact, I've never been <sup>4</sup>abroad / at the gate / in the queue before. This is my first time away from home.' I tried to talk to him and keep him calm, but it wasn't easy. However, after the plane <sup>5</sup>set off / boarded / took off, he felt better and we actually had a very interesting conversation about Spain.
