Episode 3: Do it yourself

I. Who said that?

"Do you want to get dressed?"

"Is there a DIY store near here?"

_____

"I have a lunch appointment at one o'clock"

"Put the hi-fi on the chest of the drawers"

_____

_____

II. Put the sentences in the right order to complete the dialogue:

vocabulary: gorgeous / same as / pounds / expensive / lovely

LIVEWORKSHEETS

- How about htis?

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

- How much is it?

_____

_____

_____

- Hey, Matt! This is the same colour as your T-shirt. It's gorgeous! What do you think?
- Oh look! This is lovely.
- Two. That's... twenty three, ninety-eight... Twenty-four pounds. That's Ok!
- Sixteen pounds, forty-nine.
- Eleven pounds, ninety-nine. How many do we want?
- Now... are there any rollers?...
- Black? Hmm...no. There are some really nice colours here.
- Gosh! That's expensive...Oh look! This is lovely.
- How much is it?
- Yeah, I like it.

Now listen and check:

IV. Exclamations + same as !

vocabulary: gorgeous / horrible / terrible / expensive / cheap / lovely / fascinating / amazing / bad / exciting

LIVEWORKSHEETS

positive	negative	50/50

- Look at this dress! It is so beautiful!
  It is the same colour as your shoes!

- Look at this dress! It is .... !
  It's .... colour ..... the poop.

- Look at this book! It is ....!
  It has .... story ..... in the movie.

- Look at this Chanel bag! It is ....!
  It has .... price ..... the wing of an airplane.

- I hate this cartoon. The animation is .... !
  Although it has .... rating ..... Frozen 2.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

V. Telling the price.

- How much is it? - It is five pounds.

- How much is it? - .....
- ..... much is it? - .....
- How ..... is it? - .....
- How much ..... ? - .....
- ..... ? - .....

VI. True or False

- Helen asks her friends to move her furniture.
- David drives a car.
- Matt chooses orange colour first.
- The friends decide to choose the same colour as David's shirt.
- Helen doesn't like Matt's T-shirt.
- The total price of the paint is 24 pounds.
- David doesn't like the color that Janes chooses, because it is too expensive.
- Helen thinks the new colour of her walls is gorgeous.

LIVEWORKSHEETS