Task: Fill in the gaps with the correct preposition or particle to complete the phrasal verb.

1. The negotiations were going well until they suddenly decided to break _____ all communication.
2. It's amazing how she managed to bring _____ three children while working a full-time job.
3. We are hoping that the new recycling initiative will bring _____ a significant reduction in plastic waste.
4. The police believe the burglars broke _____ through the ventilation shaft.
5. If the elevator breaks _____ again, we'll have to take the stairs to the tenth floor.
6. It took several hours for the doctors to bring him _____ after the surgery.
7. Panic broke _____ in the stadium when the lights unexpectedly went out.
8. I finally managed to bring my parents _____ to the idea of me taking a gap year.
9. They had to break _____ the old warehouse because the front locks were rusted shut.
10. He completely broke _____ when he saw the damage to his brand-new car.
11. A dangerous virus broke _____ in the remote village, forcing a total lockdown.
12. Scientists are working hard to bring _____ a cure for this rare disease.
13. She broke _____ a piece of the cookie and shared it with her friend.
14. My car broke _____ in the middle of the intersection during rush hour.
15. He was brought _____ in a bilingual environment, so he speaks both English and Spanish fluently.
16. Three prisoners broke _____ of the local jail last night; the police are still searching for them.
17. It was a difficult conversation, but I eventually brought her _____ to my way of thinking.
18. The sudden storm broke _____ just as the outdoor wedding ceremony began.
19. We shouldn't break _____ the engagement just because of one small argument.
20. After he fainted from the heat, we splashed some water on his face to bring him _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS