Practice

So and such, though, although and even though, defining relative clauses (who/which/that) reported speech

1. Complete with so or such

1. It was _____ cold that we stayed inside all day.
2. She is _____ a talented artist that everyone admires her work.
3. The movie was _____ boring that I fell asleep.
4. They had _____ a great time that they didn't want to leave.
5. He was _____ tired after work that he went straight to bed.
6. It was _____ an interesting book that I read it twice.
7. The weather was _____ bad that the flight was delayed.
8. She made _____ delicious cookies that we ate them all.
9. He is _____ a kind person that everyone trusts him.
10. The test was _____ difficult that many students failed.

2. Connect the sentences using though, although, or even though

1. She was very tired. She finished her homework.
2. It was raining heavily. They went for a walk.
3. He doesn't earn much money. He has a very important job.
4. I don't like horror movies. I watched the film with my friends.
5. She studied hard. She didn't pass the exam.

3. Complete with who, that, or which (defining clauses)

1. The woman _____ lives next door is a doctor.
2. I bought a phone _____ was very expensive.
3. The students _____ study hard usually get good grades.
4. That's the car _____ my brother wants to buy.
5. The teacher _____ teaches English is very friendly.
6. This is the movie _____ everyone is talking about.
7. The boy _____ won the competition is my cousin.

4. Use reported speech to re express what each speaker says

LIVEWORKSHEETS