'We're free for five days. It's wonderful,' said Greg happily.

'Yes, but don't forget about the exam next week,' said Jessica. 'I must study. I don't know anything!'

All the friends looked at Jessica and then they looked down at their feet. It was true. Five days' vacation was wonderful but nobody wanted to study for all that time.

'Well, I'm not going to study. I'm going to do something different,' said Matt suddenly.

His friends looked at him. 'I'm not going to sit here at college for five days. What's wrong with everybody? Let's have a good time.'

'Matt's right,' said Amy. 'Let's do something different; something exciting!'
