

Daniel and Laura's Holiday in Europe

Daniel Smith is from Australia and Laura Martínez is from Mexico. They are friends and they are in Europe on holiday.

At the moment, they are in Italy. Rome is a big city in the south of the country, and Milan is in the north. France is next to Italy, and Paris is one of the most famous cities in Europe.

Daniel and Laura are in a small hotel. In the room, there is a table with two chairs and a map of Europe on the wall. There are also some books on the desk.

On the map, Spain is in the west of Europe, and Madrid is the capital city. London is a big city in England, while Oxford is a small one.

Daniel is tall and Laura is short. They are sitting at the table, looking at the map and talking in English. They are happy to be together in the same place.

The Nile is a very long river, but the Tiber is a short river in Italy,

They are not at home; they are enjoying the trip in Europe.
