Writing Guide: Starting Your Day Positively

1. Analyze the Task

Topic: Starting Your Day Positively

We want to know about your morning routine! You will write a short article for a school magazine answering these questions:

- How do you start your day in a positive way?
- Do you do any activities or have routines to help you wake up?
- How do they make you feel?

2. Step-by-Step Brainstorming

Before you write, think about your routine. Fill in the table below with your ideas.

- Activity: What do you do? (e.g., listen to music, cold shower)
- The Feeling: Describe the activity using -ing adjectives (e.g., relaxing, exciting).
- Your Reaction: How do you feel? Use -ed adjectives (e.g., relaxed, excited).

Morning Activity	The Feeling (-ing)	Your Reaction (-ed)
Example: Doing yoga	It is relaxing	I feel relaxed

3. Grammar Toolbox

A. Adjectives: -ed vs -ing

- -ing: Describes the thing or situation.
- "My alarm clock is annoying."
- "Music is interesting."
- -ed: Describes how you feel.

- "I was tired."
- "I'm interested in music."

B. Present Perfect

Use the Present Perfect to talk about things you have done recently in your morning routine.

- Just: "I have woken up."
- Already: "I have had my breakfast."
- Yet: "I haven't checked my phone."

4. Structure & Useful Phrases

Use these phrases to organize your article and make it interesting.

1. Catch Attention

- "Are you one of those people who find it difficult to get up?"
- "Have you ever felt really stressed in the morning?"
- "Can you imagine starting a day without music?"

2. Make it Lively

- "I absolutely love..."
- "It makes me feel more alive."
- "It makes me want to move."

3. Give Your Opinion

- "For me... is the best way to..."
- "Speaking personally..."
- "In my opinion..."

5. Draft Your Article

Write your article below. Remember to follow this structure:

1. Introduction: Catch the reader's attention.
2. Main Body: Describe your routine. Use just, already, yet and adjectives (-ed/-ing).
3. Conclusion: Summarize your opinion.
