3 ★★★ Complete the article with the phrases below.

can't be    can't have happened    could be might have caused    must be    must have bent

The Crooked Forest

One of the strangest places I've ever been

1                    the Crooked Forest near Gryfino in Poland.

It contains around 400 pine trees which all bend in the same direction just above the ground. Experts

2                    sure what happened to the trees. Some people think that they

3                    this shape because of a heavy snowstorm. Other people think that very strong gravity* in the area 4                    the bend, but scientists are certain that this

5                    as gravity pulls things down and not to the side.

It is generally believed that humans

6                    the trees, because their shapes are all very similar. Whatever the truth is, it's certainly an amazing place to visit.

* gravity - the force that pulls objects towards the ground

4 ★★★ Think about a mystery you have heard about, e.g. strange lights in the sky. Write six sentences using past and present modals of deduction to speculate about what it was.

B I tried changing the settings on the camera, but it didn't improve the images.
- 4 A We regret to inform you that we haven't chosen your photograph for the magazine.
B We regret informing you that we haven't chosen your photograph for the magazine.
- 5 A I'm sorry, but I don't remember to meet you before.
B I'm sorry, but I don't remember meeting you before.

6 ★★★ Look at the pictures. Complete the sentences with the -ing or to + infinitive form of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 The tourists stopped to take (take) photos of the elephants.
- 2 Lewis went on run (run) despite hurting his foot.
- 3 Lana was annoyed that Jayden had forgotten meet (meet) her at the cinema.
- 4 After a bad start, the team went on win (win) the match.

7 ★★★ Complete the text with the -ing or to + infinitive form of the verbs in brackets.

How to take a great selfie

Have you ever stopped <sup>1</sup> to take (take) a photo of yourself and been unhappy with the result? Haven't we all! So, before you go on <sup>2</sup> take (take) unsatisfactory selfies, stop for a moment and read our top tips.

- Looking your best starts with the light, and natural light is the way to go. Sunny days are great, and if you're out and about early in the morning, don't forget <sup>3</sup> take (take) your phone as the softer light is great for selfies. If you're inside, try <sup>4</sup> move (move) next to a window so that the sun is on your face.
- Think about the angle. Remember <sup>5</sup> keep (keep) the phone level with your eyes.
- Finally, try not <sup>6</sup> edit (edit) the photo too much. Looking natural is much better than looking perfect.

Good luck and have fun!

8 ★★★ Choose four things from the list below and write a sentence about each one using the -ing or to + infinitive form of verbs.

- something you have stopped doing recently
- something that you often forget to do
- an important person you remember meeting
- something you regret doing
- something you've tried to learn
- someone you didn't like at first that you've gone on to become friends with

Last year, I stopped having dance lessons because I didn't have enough time.
