

MATCH THE WORD IN THE SENTENCE TO ITS MEANING.

1. The app reached one million downloads within its first month of release. _____
 2. His arrogance ultimately led to his downfall in the political arena. _____
 3. A sudden downpour interrupted the outdoor graduation ceremony. _____
 4. She had an emotional breakdown after weeks of intense stress. _____
 5. Their break-up was amicable, but it still took time to adjust to the change. _____
 6. The failed prototype was a temporary setback rather than a definitive failure. _____
 7. The debate turned into a dramatic showdown between opposing political leaders. _____
 8. His unexpected outburst during the meeting surprised everyone in the room. _____
 9. The upkeep of historic buildings requires constant funding and specialized expertise. _____
 10. After months of decline, the company experienced a significant upturn in sales. _____
 11. The boxer won the match by knockout in the third round. _____
 12. The hikers kept a lookout for signs of wildlife along the trail. _____
 13. The damaged equipment was considered a total write-off after the fire. _____
 14. After years away from the spotlight, the singer made an impressive comeback. _____
 15. One major drawback of remote work is the potential for social isolation. _____
- A. The ending of a relationship or division of a group.
 - B. Something considered a total loss; an accounting deduction.
 - C. Maintenance required to keep something in good condition.
 - D. An improvement or upward trend after decline.
 - E. A sudden release of strong emotion.
 - F. A sudden fall from power, success, or prosperity.
 - G. A return to success, popularity, or activity.
 - H. A heavy rainfall occurring suddenly.
 - I. A file transferred from the internet to a device; the act of transferring it.
 - J. A failure in functioning (mechanical, emotional, or organizational).
 - K. A disadvantage or negative aspect.
 - L. A delay or obstacle that slows progress.
 - M. A decisive confrontation or conflict.
 - N. A careful watch; also a person assigned to watch for danger.
 - O. A blow that renders someone unconscious; also a decisive victory.