

WORKSHEET 1

WELCOME TO VERONA

Our story happens in Verona, Italy. In a small building where we can find Juliet's Balcony. Many people visit it every year. It is said to be the balcony from Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet. Visitors can see a small stone balcony and a statue of Juliet in the courtyard. People write love letters and stick them on the walls. Some believe touching Juliet's statue brings good luck in love.

But, is it true? Is this the real Juliet's Balcony? Touching Juliet's statue brings good luck? We will never know. This story makes it so that every year, many tourists visit this place and take pictures of Juliet's Balcony. Whether the story is true or false, it still has an effect.

Now, answer true or false.

1. Juliet's Balcony is in Rome.
2. People leave letters on the walls near the balcony.
3. The balcony was used in a Shakespeare play.
4. There is a statue of Romeo in the courtyard.
5. Some people believe the statue brings good luck.
6. Nobody visits Juliet's Balcony anymore.
7. The story of Juliet's Balcony attracts many tourists every year.
8. The balcony is made of wood.