

1 Read the first sentence, then choose the correct option.

- 0 'We can't see any sticking plasters in the chemist's.'
They said they can't / couldn't see any sticking plasters in the chemist's.
- 1 'Are they OK?' We asked if they were / are OK.
- 2 'He didn't feel ill yesterday.' I said he didn't feel / hadn't felt ill the day before.
- 3 'Do you know how to treat a fever?' He asked if I knew / had known how to treat a fever.
- 4 'Your rash will get better.' She said my rash would / will get better.
- 5 'The nurse is taking my temperature.' You said the nurse is / was taking your temperature.

2 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first one. Use no more than three words.

- 0 'You need to rest'. The doctor told me I needed to rest.
- 1 'I am sick,' she said.
She said _____ sick.
- 2 'Did he hurt his arm yesterday?'
The nurse asked me if _____ his arm the previous day.
- 3 'You can find out why you have migraines if you make a doctor's appointment,' my mum said.
My mum said I _____ why I had migraines if I made a doctor's appointment.
- 4 'Are they waiting for the nurse now?'
He asked me _____ waiting for the nurse then.
- 5 'Your muscles will ache tomorrow,' she said.
She said our muscles _____ the next day.

. Choose the correct option.

- 0 'Open your mouth.'
The doctor told / asked me to open my mouth.
- 1 'Could you describe your symptoms?'
The nurse asked / asked her to describe her symptoms.
- 2 'Could you please help me put on the bandage?'
He asked the nurse help / to help him put on the bandage.
- 3 'Don't forget to take this pill twice a day.'
The doctor told me to not forget / not to forget to take that pill twice a day.
- 4 'Can I have an appointment for tomorrow morning, please?'
I told / asked for an appointment the next morning.
- 5 'I went to the doctor's today.'
My mum said me / said she had been to the doctor's that day.

✓ Complete the reports of the requests and commands.

- 0 'Sit down, please.' The nurse asked me to sit down.
- 1 'Stay in bed for at least four days, Ana.' He told Ana _____.
- 2 'Can you not do that?' Her dad asked _____.
- 3 'Please wait for the doctor.' The receptionist asked us _____.
- 4 'Don't eat any food for six hours.' She told me _____.
- 5 'Can you make an appointment?' The doctor asked them _____.