A Fun Picnic

Ben and his family went on a picnic last Sunday. They drove to a park with a big, shady tree by a lake. Ben, his mom, and his dad laid out a red and white checkered blanket on the grass.

Ben's little sister Lily helped unpack the picnic basket. They brought sandwiches, fruit, cookies and lemonade. After eating, Ben and Lily played with a blue and red ball while their parents relaxed under the tree.

Ben saw some ducks swimming in the lake and they fed the ducks some bread. Later in the afternoon, they packed up their things and Ben's dad took some family photos near the lake. Everyone smiled for the pictures. After a fun day at the park,
