NAME: _____

POPULAR CITIES

____ 1. What does the writer suggest about the atmosphere of Tokyo?
A) It is dominated by historical traditions.
B) It is a mixture of the past and the present.
C) It is moving away from its cultural roots.
D) It is primarily focused on modern technology.

____ 2. What is said about the food in Tokyo?
A) It is mostly limited to traditional snacks like pastries.
B) It is difficult to find high-quality meals on a budget.
C) It includes both world-renowned dishes and quick street food.
D) It has been heavily influenced by Western cooking styles.

____ 3. According to the text, what can be found in London?
A) A wide range of global food options.
B) Weather that stays consistent throughout the seasons.
C) Landmarks that are only accessible to wealthy tourists.
D) A culture that has replaced traditional customs with modern ones.

____ 4. What do Tokyo and London have in common?
A) They both have weather that is often hard to predict.
B) They both offer ways to visit without spending excessive amounts of money.
C) They both require visitors to have a basic understanding of the local language.
D) They both experience intense heat during the summer months.

____ 5. Which of the following is true about the climate in these cities?
A) Tokyo's winters are more severe than London's.
B) London's summers are more humid than Tokyo's.
C) Both cities experience significant snowfall during the summer.
D) Tokyo's weather follows a more clearly defined seasonal pattern.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

____ 6. What is the main point made about language in the two cities?
A) English is the only language used for communication in London.
B) Travelers in Tokyo may find it difficult to communicate in tourist areas.
C) London's diverse population is reflected in the many languages spoken there.
D) Japanese is rarely spoken by locals in the modern areas of Tokyo.

____ 7. Which of the following is identified as a unique characteristic of the street food available in Tokyo?
A) It consists mainly of dishes served during formal afternoon tea.
B) It includes specialized pastries that resemble the shape of a fish.
C) It is only available to visitors during the autumn season.
D) It is primarily based on ingredients imported from the United Kingdom.

____ 8. What does the passage indicate about the landmarks found in London?
A) They are recently constructed buildings designed to attract more tourists.
B) They encompass famous historical institutions such as the British Museum.
C) They are considered less significant than the modern towers in Tokyo.
D) They are located exclusively within the city's multicultural neighborhoods.

LIVEWORKSHEETS