Dear Bruce,

Beginning with the new fiscal year, a change in retirement benefits will be applied for all full-time employees here at Blanen Industries. They will no longer be given their matching retirement funds in the form of cash. Instead, their retirement funds will be provided in the form of company stock to be deposited in their retirement portfolios.

Our current retirement management firm, Proxave Futures, has been informed of this change in retirement benefits. The firm will manage the transition and will continue to provide customer support to Blanen Industries employees. Questions should be directed to Pierre Dehaene at Proxave Futures rather than our human resources department.

Please work with Yua Suzuki, head of human resources, to provide her with the information she should include in her all-staff communication about this important change in employee benefits. Our president notified me that he would like to receive all reports related to this transition. Also, please continue to send me daily financial reports.

To:	Dorota Kucharski <dkucharski@internationaltechnologicalsociety.org>
From:	Luciano Moretti <lmorette@internationaltechnologicalsociety.org>
Date:	8 August
Subject:	Research results

Ms. Kucharski,

The following is a summary of what I have learned in my research about where to hold our next annual technology conference in June of next year.

In Rome, the best option I have found is Hotel al Ponte. The total cost for conference events there would be €31,500. — [1] —. Individual hotel rooms would cost €80 per night for participants. In the event that attendance is high, we could also house participants in the nearby Hotel Milvio at €120 per night. — [2] —.

I also looked into hotels in Genoa and Florence, but I could not find any that would be much cheaper in overall conference costs. — [3] —. More importantly, I am concerned that the greater cost of flights to those smaller cities could discourage some attendees. Rome, on the other hand, has affordable direct flights from most European cities. — [4] —. It will also be more affordable for our colleagues coming from Buenos Aires.

If you would like to pursue the Hotel al Ponte option, I will provide a detailed write-up of the anticipated costs and of the amenities offered by the hotel.

Best,

Luciano Moretti
Secretary, International Technological Society

Dear Lisa,

Thank you for sending your invoice for services rendered in the month of September. I want to commend you on your superb start as one of our independent freelance editors. Our clients had nothing but positive things to say about your work. As you know, we do not dictate how you structure your workday; instead, Brit-Revision (BRV) guidelines require simply that deadlines be met and that work quality be maintained. You have done both admirably.

Also, we will pay you for an additional 30 minutes of work that you did for Mr. Kent. He reported that you did consulting work for him over the phone on a short oral presentation that he created. As for the work that you did for our long-standing corporate client Lydia Quinn, you will see on your receipt that we have paid you at a higher hourly rate.
