

digger: A machine that digs	acrobatics: The art of performing gymnastics mime: A kind of acting in which the actor doesn't talk but only uses moves and gestures.	stilts: Long, thin sticks with blocks to rest the foot on. They are used to walk above the ground circus: A special show that comes from town to town and includes clowns,  and animals.	trapeze: A horizontal bar that is part of a circus and is used for exercises and training.