

TRS601 – Part 2 – Test

Part 1: MCQs

1. The government invested heavily in transportation and digital networks because it believed these improvements would accelerate economic _____ across rural regions.
A. futility
B. advancement
C. lag
D. segregation
2. After decades of research in oncology, she is now considered the _____ authority on cancer detection in Southeast Asia.
A. militant
B. divergent
C. preeminent
D. cynical
3. The newly enacted policy aims to strengthen _____ laws in order to protect minority groups from workplace bias.
A. allegiance
B. dominance
C. antidiscrimination
D. hierarchy
4. Long-term exposure to poor indoor air quality can be extremely _____ to occupants' respiratory health.
A. efficacious
B. tangible
C. detrimental
D. nonrivalrous
5. During the civil rights movement, activists organized a nationwide _____ of public transport to protest racial injustice.
A. levy
B. boycott
C. milestone
D. waiver
6. Many leaders advocated _____ as a strategic way to demand reform without provoking violent retaliation.
A. torture
B. segregationist
C. nonviolent resistance
D. dominance
7. Without proper maintenance and ventilation, buildings may gradually _____ to structural damage and mold infestation.
A. emulate
B. succumb

- C. eschew
- D. invigorate

8. The documentary focused on the economic _____ of migrant workers who lacked access to healthcare and legal protection.

- A. breakthrough
- B. plight
- C. dominance
- D. transition

9. His charismatic speeches were able to _____ thousands of young voters to participate actively in political reform.

- A. alienate
- B. tabulate
- C. galvanize
- D. ostracize

10. The court will carefully _____ whether the new tax policy violates constitutional rights.

- A. insinuate
- B. deem
- C. waft
- D. lag

11. The government decided to _____ a temporary environmental tax on companies that exceeded pollution limits.

- A. alleviate
- B. mitigate
- C. levy
- D. eschew

12. After years of unsuccessful trials, researchers finally achieved a major _____ in genetic mutation therapy.

- A. futility
- B. hierarchy
- C. breakthrough
- D. transition

13. Certain viruses can _____ for years inside the body before symptoms begin to appear.

- A. transcend
- B. fizzle
- C. lie dormant
- D. thrive on

14. The factory was fined for releasing _____ chemicals that posed serious risks to nearby communities.

- A. palatable
- B. poignant
- C. nonexcludable
- D. hazardous

15. Clinical trials showed that the new treatment was highly _____ in reducing mortality rates among patients.

- A. skewed
- B. militant
- C. vague
- D. efficacious

16. Due to weak enforcement, the new environmental policy began to _____ after only a few months.

- A. transcend
- B. fizzle
- C. prevail
- D. invigorate

17. Prolonged exposure to toxic substances may severely _____ children's motor function and cognitive development.

- A. impair
- B. cap
- C. emulate
- D. invigorate

18. Critics argued that the statistics were _____ because they excluded data from rural areas.

- A. preeminent
- B. poignant
- C. skewed
- D. palatable

19. Installing high-efficiency ventilation systems can significantly _____ the negative effects of indoor pollutants.

- A. alienate
- B. mitigate
- C. trump
- D. ostracize

20. Despite public criticism and political pressure, she remained _____ in her commitment to social justice reform.

- A. militant
- B. vague
- C. cynical
- D. unwavering

Part 2: Matching

WORDS

1. brain drain
2. transparency
3. ostracize
4. malignant
5. hierarchy
6. milestone

- 7. transmissible
- 8. charismatic
- 9. mitigate
- 10. infrastructure

SENTENCES

- A. The company promised greater _____ by publishing detailed financial reports for the public.
- B. The disease is highly _____, so patients must be isolated to prevent further spread.
- C. The country is experiencing serious _____ as many skilled doctors and engineers move abroad for better opportunities.
- D. The promotion marked an important _____ in her professional career after years of hard work.
- E. In some communities, people tend to _____ individuals who challenge traditional beliefs.
- F. The tumor was found to be _____, requiring immediate and aggressive treatment.
- G. His _____ personality attracted thousands of supporters to the movement.
- H. The government invested heavily in roads, hospitals, and power plants to improve national _____.
- I. Organizations often operate within a clear _____, where authority flows from top management to lower-level staff.
- J. New environmental policies aim to _____ the harmful effects of air pollution in urban areas.