Wants, Needs and Money

The Little Coin Jar

Sam had a small, clear jar on his shelf.

Inside the jar were shiny coins. Sam's mum said,

"This money is for things you need first, and sometimes for things you want."

One day, Sam went to the shop with Mum. Sam saw: apples, bread and a big teddy bear

Sam said, "I want the teddy bear!"

Mum smiled and said,

"The teddy bear is a want. But food is a need because it helps us grow."

Sam thought carefully. He used his money to buy apples and bread.

When they got home, Sam felt proud.

He still had some coins left in his jar.

"One day," Sam said, "I will save my money and buy the teddy bear later!"

- a) What did Sam keep his money in?
 a box a jar a bag
- b) What did Sam see in the shop?
 apples teddy bear car
- c) Which things were needs?

4. Which thing was a want?
