

On the first day of fasting, the day feels too long for some children because they are not used to fasting. Sometimes the weather is too hot in the afternoon. However, many people feel strong enough to continue because they have faith.

In the evening, families prepare delicious food for Iftar. The table is sometimes too small for all the dishes, but the house is big enough for the whole family to gather. Children try to be patient enough while waiting for the call to prayer.

Read the text and answer the questions:

1-What is the main idea of the text?

- a) Ramadan is only about food.
- b) The weather is always hot in Ramadan.
- c) Ramadan teaches patience and families gather.

2-Why does the day feel difficult for some children on the first day?

- a) the day is too long.
- b) the day is long enough.
- c) the day is small enough.

3-What is the weather like in the afternoon sometimes?

- a) It is too cold.
- b) It is too hot.
- c) It is cool enough.