HOMEWORK MARCH 7TH 2026
PRE-TEENAGERS 11

1. Write which sense (smell, sight, hearing, taste, touch) we use for 1 -9.

1. a warm bath touch
2. the sweetness of lemonade
3. when someone's cooking dinner
4. a painting in an exhibition
5. the radio
6. a terrible noise
7. when someone calls your name
8. holding a cat
9. the sun going down

2. Complete the table with passive forms in the box.

were taken | is written | was built | was opened | was damaged | will be repaired | were brought together | it's still lived in | will be sent back

Present passive	Past simple passive	Future passive

3. Rearrange the words to complete the passive sentences.

1. Too much food thrown days away is these .
2. Most food bought in supermarkets isn't , but in markets.
3. The pizza it I just ordered was one after delivered hour .
4. In the future, most vegetables people's grown gardens will in be .
5. We were told by the was closing that restaurant the manager .
6. Some of the best products small by companies made are .

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. Choose the correct options to complete the text.

A famous sushi restaurant in London [ ] history today when their new flying tray service [ ]. That's right, when you order one of its famous sushi burgers, it [ ] by a person, but by a flying tray known as the iTray.

The tray, which has propellers like a plane, [ ] with a flat top that can carry a plate of food. It [ ] by a computer app and [ ] up to 15 miles per hour. It [ ] to create an interesting dining experience for customers, says the company. At the moment the iTray is only available in certain branches of the restaurant, but the company hopes it [ ] – literally – next year!

5. Write the correct colours to complete the phrases.

1. once in a [ ] moon
2. see [ ]
3. get the [ ] light
4. as [ ] as night
5. out of the [ ]
6. tell a [ ] lie
7. as [ ] as a sheet
8. be in the [ ]
9. [ ] and [ ]
10. feel [ ]

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Match idioms from the last exercise to each picture.

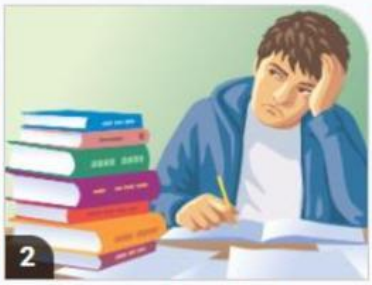

It happens once in a blue moon. | It was as black as night. | I told a white lie.

I'm in the red. | I saw red. | It came out of the blue. | I'm feeling blue.

We've got the green light. | It isn't black and white. | I went as white as a sheet.

I'll be late home from work again, honey. I've so much to do tonight. Miss you lots.

I hate my life!

I wasn't expecting this ...

Activa

BOO!

You did what?!

Sorry, I let it fall.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

7. Complete the article with 'in order to' or 'so that'. You will need to use each phrase more than once.

Australian Jessica Watson had a very different childhood from most other children. When she was a child, her family decided to live on a boat for five years. _____ become well educated, she and her brothers and sisters were taught by their mother.

From the age of 12, Jessica wanted to sail around the world by herself. _____ do this, no-one would be able to help her on the journey, except by radio. Surprisingly her parents supported her, and when she was 16, they started to help her prepare. _____ she could get experience, she worked on other boats.

She set off from Sydney on 18th October 2009. Her boat, Ella's Pink Lady, was able to sail itself, _____ Jessica could sleep at night. _____ keep the boat in good condition, she had to do all the repairs herself. Jessica expected the journey to take eight months and to travel 23,000 miles. _____ it could be recognised as an official round-the-world voyage, she had to cross the equator and travel 21,600 miles.

Jessica arrived back in Australia seven months later. When she arrived her parents were waiting for her in the harbour _____ they could welcome her home. Her voyage was not recognised as an official record, but it was still an amazing thing to do.

LIVEWORKSHEETS