Topic 3: Connect the letters to form a word.

اربط الحروف لتكوين كلمة :

كَتَبَ

بَ تَ كَ

Example / مثال

تَ حُو

بَ دُ

دَ جَا جَ

أَ بِي

شَدَّ رَا بَ

بُ نُو رُ

Note: In Arabic, some letters do not connect to the letter that comes after them (they connect only to the letter before). These are often called non-connecting letters or letters with one hand.

The letters are:

ا - د - ذ - ر - ز - و

Example:

رسم → ر does not connect to س

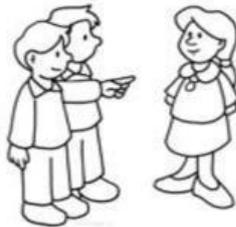

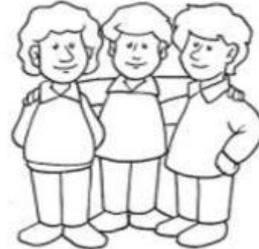

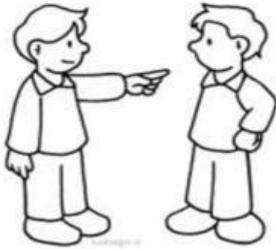

“Empower students to learn for life and strive for excellence so that they can contribute positively to the global society”

He	huwa	هُوَ
She	hiya	هِيَ
We	naHnu	نَحْنُ
You (pl.)	antum	أَنْتُمْ
They	hum	هُم

هِيَ / هُوَ / هُمْ

Topic 5: Complete the following:

أكمل مما يلي :

Masculine vs Feminine in Arabic Verbs (Present Tense)

1. For boys/masculine:

- Add - ي (ya) at the beginning of the verb.
- Example:
 - يكتب → yaktub → "he writes"
 - يلعب → yal'ab → "he plays"

2. For girls/feminine:

- Add - ت (taa) at the beginning of the verb.
- Example:
 - تكتب → taktub → "she writes"
 - تلعب → tal'ab → "she plays"

Please note that you need to remove " taa letter" at the end . Check the first example ↓
