Viet Nam joined the World Trade Organization (WTO) in 2007. This was a major step in the country's economic integration. Since then, Viet Nam has become an attractive destination for foreign investors. Being a member of the WTO has helped Viet Nam increase its exports and create millions of jobs for local people.

However, international integration also brings challenges. Local businesses have to compete with large foreign companies. This requires Vietnamese workers to improve their professional skills and language ability. Moreover, international organizations like UNDP and UNICEF have supported Viet Nam in areas such as poverty reduction, education, and healthcare. These partnerships have contributed to the sustainable development of the country and improved the quality of life for many people, especially children and women in remote areas.

Question 16: When did Viet Nam become a member of the WTO?

A. In 2000 B. In 2007 C. In 2010 D. In 2025

Question 17: What is one benefit of joining the WTO mentioned in the text?

A. Reducing the population B. Increasing exports
