Read the following passage then choose the best answer to each question.

Do you ever think about what schools will be like in the future? Many people think that students will study most regular classes such as maths, science and history online.

Students will probably learn these subjects anywhere using a computer. What will happen if students have problems with a subject? They might connect with a teacher through live video conferencing. Expert teachers from learning centres will give students help wherever they live.

Students will still take classes in a school, too. Schools will become places for learning social skills. Teachers will guide students in learning how to work together in getting along with each other. They will help students with group projects both in and out of the classroom.

Volunteer work and working at local businesses will teach students important life skills about the world they live in. This will help students become an important part of their communities.

Some experts say it will take five years for changes to begin in schools. Some say it will take longer. Most people agree, though, that computers will change education the way TVs and telephones changed life for people all over the world years before.

- B. talking directly to the camera
- C. Vlogging can even become more than just a hobby!
- D. to connect with others who share similar interests

Teens these days are all about vlogging! It's like blogging, but instead of writing, you create video blogs. Vloggers film themselves Q29.1..... about anything that interests them. This could be their favorite video games, cool outfits they put together, funny challenges they try, or even just a glimpse into their everyday life.

Vlogging is a fun way for teens to express themselves creatively. Q29.2..... This makes the videos even more interesting to watch. It's also a great way Q29.3..... Vloggers can watch other vlogs and learn new things, or even find new friends online who they can chat with about their hobbies.

Q29.4..... Some popular vloggers even get paid to promote products in their videos. This can be a great way for teens to earn some extra money while doing something they enjoy. You only need a phone or a regular camera to create a vlog and share it on popular platforms like YouTube and TikTok. So, if you're looking for a fun and creative hobby, why not give vlogging a try?
