

We use "Have got" with

✓ → Have got.

✗ → Haven't got.

I have got a dog.

You have got three cats.

We have got a rabbit.

You have got two horses.

They have got a tortoise.

We use "Has got" with

✓ → Has got.

✗ → Hasn't got.

He has got a bird.

She has got four fish.

It has got a carrot.

1. Choose between "have got" and "has got".

This is my grandpa. He have / has got a rabbit.

They are my brothers. They have / has got a tortoise.

This is my dog. It have / has got a bone toy.

You have / has got a cat.

I have / has got three birds.

We have / has got a hamster.

This is my mum. She have / has got a lot of fish.

2. Write the correct answer.

Has she got a dog?

- Yes, she

Has he got a bird?

- No, he

