Travel Journal

Yesterday, I traveled back to the year 1850. I seed a very old steam train. It was huge! I wanted to take a photo, but I maked a mistake and dropped my camera. A kind man helped me. He gived me some water. We talked for a while, and then I runned back to my Time Machine. I eated a sandwich and felt very tired but happy. I goed home at 6 o'clock.
